PASTORAL MESSAGE

A study of Revelation requires slow, thorough and repeated reading, looking up texts and wrestling with scriptural comparisons to uncover the mysteries that are there. But it is definitely worth the effort—"Blessed is he who reads...this prophecy and keeps those things which are written therein. For us, to God's blessings; we have to read the word of God, listen to it and with the power of Jesus keep what we learn. God will confer a blessing on us if we read and apply to our lives the principles of this book. Satan will rob us of a special blessing if he can deceive us into believing that we cannot understand Revelation. If we read Revelation and the entire Bible which says, 'all scripture is given by inspiration of God...' (2 Tim. 3:16) we will enter a state of independence from outside influence, a state of blessedness and assuredly we will be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

9. STEWARDSHIP

Repeatedly the Saviour says, "Many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first." Jesus would have those who are engaged in His service, not eager for rewards, nor feel that they must receive compensation for all that they do. The Lord would have our minds run in a different channel; for He sees not as man sees. He does not judge by appearances, but estimates a man by the sincerity of His heart. CS 339.1.
